detensive, we are arged so to do by the consideration, that from ourselves or be when united and acting with immesa, can we expect to obtain that justice which is our due.

The Journeymen of New Jersey being manimously of the opinion that the only practicable and effective way of delivering the trade out of the hands of these men, born before their time, to consist in Association, have accordingly formed themselves into a Society to be called the United Journeymen Hat Makers Society, of which I alon and Protection are the main features, and which is organized upon a basis likely to be permanent.

The success which the movement has met with in this State fasters the hope that with regard to the question in point, it is deanned to effect a revolution in the trade, it is earnestly recommended to the Journeymen of New York and vicinity, Connecticut and elsewhere, that they take measures to cooperate with the men of New-Jersey, in order that all may participate in the full benefits of the enterprise.
